

These trailers are designed to be dropped in service fields for workers to service electrical systems. Very heavy duty and ready to get driven over any terrain. These have been specifically designed for this company and we can do the same for you.